When might these charges change?

An example of some factors which typically might increase the cost of our services are as follows:

- If the legal title is unregistered
- If the legal title is defective
- If the transaction involves a transfer of part or the grant of a new lease
- If the property being purchased is a new build
- If the property is subject to a rent charge
- If the property is sold subject to tenants
- If you are obtaining financial contributions from third parties, such as a gifted deposit
- If the property is subject to an Air Space Lease or solar panels are installed
- If we are required to deal with a Management Company
- If you are purchasing through an auction or where tight deadlines to complete are imposed

We would recommend that you contact us to discuss your transaction further should you have any queries.

What's not included in our charges:

We do not provide tax or financial advice, and our advice is limited to the conveyancing procedure only.

We cannot advise upon or express any opinion as to the commercial merits of the transaction or the value of the property.

We cannot advise upon the physical condition of the property and are not qualified to comment on the contents of any survey obtained.

We do not provide advice on any issues relating to planning except to report to you on information disclosed by a local authority search and enquiries of the seller. If you require any specialist planning advice, you would need to instruct a specialist planning lawyer or adviser.

Purchase of a leasehold residential property

In the event that you are purchasing a leasehold property, additional disbursements will usually be payable. There are certain disbursements which will be set out in the individual lease relating to the property. The disbursements which we anticipate will apply are set out separately below. This list is not exhaustive and other disbursements may apply depending on the term of the lease. We will update you on the specific fees upon receipt and review of the lease from the seller's solicitors.

Anticipated Disbursements

- Notice of Transfer fee - This fee if chargeable is set out in the lease. Often the fee is between £50.00 - £150.00 (plus VAT at 20%).
- Notice of Charge fee (if the property is to be mortgaged) - This fee is set out in the lease. Often the fee is between £50.00 - £150.00 (plus VAT at 20%).
- Deed of Covenant fee - This fee is provided by the management company for the property and can be difficult to estimate. Often it is between £100.00 - £200.00 (plus VAT at 20%).
- Certificate of Compliance fee - To be confirmed upon receipt of the lease, as can range between £50.00 - £150.00 (plus VAT at 20%).

These fees vary from property to property and can on occasion be significantly more than the ranges given above. We can give you an accurate figure once we have sight of your specific documents.

You should also be aware that ground rent and service charge are likely to apply throughout your ownership of the property. We will confirm the ground rent and the anticipated service charge as soon as we receive this information.

*Our fee assumes that:

- a. this is a standard transaction and that no unforeseen matters arise including for example (but not limited to) a defect in title which requires remedying prior to completion or the preparation of additional documents ancillary to the main transaction
- b. in relation to a leasehold property, it is the assignment of an existing lease and is not the grant of a new lease
- c. the transaction is concluded in a timely manner and no unforeseen complication arise
- d. all parties to the transaction are co-operative and there is no unreasonable delay from third parties providing documentation
- e. no indemnity policies are required. Additional disbursements may apply if indemnity policies are required.
- f. any mortgage lender that you use does not have any unusual or onerous requirements (and you are using one mortgage lender only with one mortgage offer).

How long will my house purchase take?

How long it will take from your offer being accepted until you can move into your house will depend on a number of factors. The average process typically takes approximately 8 weeks.

It can be quicker or slower, depending on the parties in the chain. If the transaction is not straight forward, for example if you are purchasing an unregistered title, a leasehold property, a new build property, or one with the benefit of solar panels, the transaction could take approximately 12 weeks. The need for lease extensions is becoming more prevalent and on such transactions, this can take significantly longer, between 3 and 6 months. In such a situation additional charges would apply.
